Presentation of Seagull Group
Seagull Group

Our History
Seagull is the evolution of a family business that goes back 100 years

Mr. Steriotis’ great-grandfather initiated coastal trade with owned and chartered vessels. The two sons expanded the business as ship owners, vessel operators and ship agents. Few of the companies represented were: Egyptian Alexandria Navigation Lines and Khedivial Lines, American Watson Lines and American Waterman Lines, with passenger and bulk vessels.

- 1905: Operator of Mini Lines, owned by the former G.P. Livanos, trading as a regular liner operator between the east and west Mediterranean.
- 1969: Societe Anonyme G.A. Callitis Successors established, entering vessel ownership and management by purchasing small dry cargo vessels that soon reached a fleet of 15.
- 1970: Noni Steriotis joins the family business and we become agents for Sealand SA joining the container business.
- 1972: Representation of Lloyd Triestino and Somat for Greece.
- 1978: Continue tramp and husbandry activities, while acquiring another nine general cargo vessels. Expand our activities in competitive chartering and ships management.
- 1979: Sealand, leading container carrier in Greece, introduced intermodalism in Greece and the Balkans. At that time our Company carried 52% of all cargo in and out of Greece.
- 1980: Sell all of our vessels before worldwide shipping crisis.
- 1982: Incorporate our own trucking company, purchasing the first twelve trucks, a container depot, and a fleet of chassis in order to meet market requirements.
- 1985: Presidency by Noni Steriotis while becoming agents of Sealand in Turkey.
- 1989: Become partner and join Moko Agent of Sealand in former Yugoslavia.
- 1991: Give out the Turkey agency to Sark Express, Turkey.
We have been promoting our family principles in every of our businesses
